

SULLIVAN & CROMWELL

48 Wall Street, New York 5,

July 12, 1951

Dear Allen:

[redacted], has
filed an application for a job as clerk-typist
with the C.I.A. She graduated from Wellesley last month, and is now in Europe on a six-weeks'
vacation.

STAT

If you can properly do so, I should appreciate your telling your personnel bureau that you know me and that I am mentioned as one of the references in the application.

Marion and I returned from Europe on Tuesday and had a splendid vacation. I called upon your friend [redacted] and had a very pleasant talk with him. He was quite helpful in connection with the Spanish Tourist Agency,
which is a fine organization.

STAT

I hope to see you before long.

Faithfully yours,
S. W. Sullivan
